SPANISH KING NAMES CRITIC CABINET HEAD

Takes Bold Step by Selecting Guerra, Chief of Conservatives.

HEAD OF LEADING PARTY

Alfonso's Action Likely To Weaken Power of Throne, Is Forecast.

By The Associated Press.
MADRID, Feb. 16.—King Alfonso, taking a bold step which may cost him much of his kingly power, today designated Jose Antonio Sanchez Guerra, who had hinted that he wants a Spanish republic, to form a new government.

Sanchez Guerra, leader of a left wing conservative group which probably is the strongest party in Spain, called at the palace before noon and after a two-hour conference with the king announced he would attempt to get together a cabinet to replace that of Premier Berenguer, which resigned Saturday.

Success Anticipated.
He said he would begin conferences immediately with other politicians and return to the palace at 6 p. m. today to let the king know what success he had had. It was believed he would be successful.

While Sanchez Guerra, leaving the palace, did not state upon what grounds he and the king had come to terms, since Berenguer's resignation Saturday, he has declared that the only solution for the present crisis is immediate convocation of a constitutional convention to write a new Spanish constitution.

This convention would exercise power above even that of the king. The king would have no power to adjourn it once it was convened, and in view of growing left wing and republican sentiment in Spain a curtailment of his present broad powers might be expected.

Madrid was quiet, with the streets crowded with the pre-Lenten holiday throngs. No more police than usual were visible.

His Stormy Career.
The now premeditated assassin has been in the public eye in Spain since the early part of the century. He headed a liberal cabinet as early as 1915. After it fell he became minister of interior and later president of the chamber of deputies.

He was premier again in 1922, and in the following year was expelled from Spain for his complicity in the Primo de Rivera regime.

In public writings and utterances thereafter he charged King Alfonso with having violated the Spanish constitution in permitting the Primo de Rivera dictatorship, and therefore to be ruling illegally.

GUNMEN OVERPOWER 20 DAIRY EMPLOYEES

Workers Held at Bay with Revolvers as Safe Is Looted of $1,800.

By United Press.
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 16.—Overpowering 20 employees of the Echo dairy here, three armed bandits today looted an open safe of $1,800 and fled.

The bandits entered the first floor of the dairy and tied up five employees who were at work there.

Brandishing guns and threatening to kill the men if they made an outcry, the trio then hastened to the second floor. There were 14 persons at work on this floor including Ben Stern, president of the company. With drawn revolvers the men lined up all these employees—men and women—and forced them to march to an adjoining tool room.

Leaving one of the gunmen to guard the 15 imprisoned persons, two of the men went into the cashier's office and looted the safe. Then the two men called to their confederate and they ran down the stairs to an auto which was waiting at the curb.

GALION IS ASSURED FEDERAL BUILDING

President Includes $140,000 Structure in List; Mouser Forecasts Approval.

Galion was assured a new federal postoffice building today, according to word from Congressman Grant E. Mouser, Jr., when the bureau of budget approved an appropriation of $140,000 for the project.

Congress is expected to give formal approval of the program which includes Galion within 10 days, Mouser said.

President Hoover added his approval to the building plan when he sent the bill to congress among others for the new government building program, according to Associated Press dispatches.

Galion was listed among a number of other cities where new buildings are to be constructed. A total of $20,105,000 for public buildings under the $115,000,000 program authorized was included in Hoover's recommendations.

The recommendation is for the first allotment under the $115,000,000 bill signed recently by the president.

Among the larger allotments State to require another week for testimony in Daugherty case.

WASHINGTON, C. H., O., Feb. 16.—At least all of another week will be required for the state to complete its case against Mal S. Daugherty, former president of the closed Ohio State bank, as his trial on a charge of abstraction of funds was resumed today.

The prosecution entered its second week with more than half of its testimony yet to be produced. A mass of documentary evidence was introduced last week, but only two witnesses were heard—Cecil L. Hall of Cincinnati, and John Perill, Fayette county farmer.

Hall, one of the investigators whose disclosures led to Daugherty's indictment, was to be recalled today for further cross-examination.

The first spectators arrived at 7 a. m. today and the courtroom was filled two hours before the trial was resumed.

WORKERS FLEE BLAZE IN PLANT AT CINCINNATI

Cases from Celluloid Cause Threatened Recurrence of Cleveland Disaster.

NO FATALITIES EXPECTED

Trio of Exits Allow Quick Escape of 75 Men and Women Workers.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 16.—Twenty-two persons including eight girl employees and 14 foremen, were overcome when fire broke out in the Pick Pen company plant here today and flames from burning celluloid and other materials filled the building. Cause of the explosion was not immediately determined. The victims appeared to recover rapidly and no fatalities were expected. Several not overcome required first aid treatment.

An explosion preceded the fire and only the fact that the plant had three exits through which 75 other employees escaped, averted loss of life. Firemen declined.

Soon Control Blame.
All available police and firemen were ordered to the scene and the blaze was controlled. The firemen donned gas masks but despite this precaution many were overcome.

The company maintains a supply of celluloid and similar materials for the manufacture of its products. The celluloid quickly spread and many employees became nauseated and fainted as they reached the exits.

A repetition of the Cleveland celluloid disaster in which more than 100 persons perished by gas was feared as police and firemen converged on the scene. The gas was said by firemen to have been similar to that which claimed many lives in the clinic fire.

Only the fact that the celluloid supply burned quickly and that hose lines were rapidly brought into play, coupled with the fact that most of the employees had time to reach the exits, prevented loss of life, officials declared. The plant is on the third floor of the building and this fact, too, helped avert disaster, it was asserted.

Taken Ill Outdoors.
Many of the victims were unaware they had been gassed until they reached the outdoors where they became violently ill.

Damage from the fire was placed at $20,000. The building was quickly altered and within the space of an hour the employees were returning to work.

Y-INDUS WINS TITLE IN Y TOURNAMENT

CRACK MARION QUINT BEATS MASSILLON IN FINAL GAME, 28-14

Locals Win from East Liverpool High School in Exhibition 34-24.

AFTER drawing a bye in the opening round of the Ohio State Y. M. C. A. conference tournament in East Liverpool Saturday the Marion Y-Indus club easily defeated the Massillon quintet 28 to 14 to win the conference title for the second consecutive season. Only three teams took part in the tourney, two other entries failing to put in their appearance at game time.

Massillon was winner over Painesville in the first round of play 20 to 13 in a one sided game. The Y-Indus was too classy an organization for the Massillon outfit. The up-staters managed to hold the game to a fairly close score for the first period although they did not nearly match the clever floor play of the winners.

Marion broke loose in the second half and left Massillon far behind in a short time. Gills led the scoring with 11 points.

The Y-Indus was enabled to chalk up a second victory in East Liverpool Saturday when Youngstown East failed to show up for a scheduled engagement with the high school. The Marion club was substituted for Youngstown and won.

walloped the Potters by a 24 to 21. The clever passwork and all round play of the Marion team provided too much of an obstacle for the high school team to surmount.

PROMOTERS DISCUSS SCHMELING-STRIK BATTLE IN CHICAGO

Madison Square Garden Manager Confers with Windy City Fight Backers.

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—William F. Carey, president and general manager of Madison Square Garden Corporation of New York, conferred with Sheldon Clark and other Chicago sportsmen today over the possibility of staging the heavyweight championship fight between Max Schmeling and young Striking here next summer.

Clark, a vice president of the Sinclair Oil company, was until recently, president of the Chicago Stadium corporation, neither Carey nor Clark would discuss the fight situation, except to say that nothing definite would be done for six weeks or two months.

George F. Getz, millionaire coal operator, member of the Illinois State Athletic Commission, and partner with Tex Rickard in promoting the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Soldier field three years ago, also was on Carey's calling list.

"I do not believe the promoters have decided on the fight," Getz said. "Mr. Carey did not say so, but I don't think he knows just what the garden is going to do. Personally, I feel confident the match finally will land in Chicago. We want it."

Unless Chicago charities share in the profits, Soldier's field, scene of the Dempsey-Tunney battle, will not be available for the fight. This was the edict of Edward J. Kelly, president of the South Park commission.

B. A. A. BASKETBALL RACE NEARS FINISH

Wesleyan Has Opportunity To Cinch Title by Winning Wednesday.

By The Associated Press. COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 16.—The Buckeye conference basketball race will be just about settled this week.

Ohio Wesleyan, which still holds first place by virtue of Saturday's 37-27 victory over Cincinnati, another win will keep the team on top regardless of what happens in other games.

If Wesleyan loses, however, and Ohio university wins the championship still would be in the balance, for then these quintets would be in a tie for the top rung. Ohio plays Cincinnati Wednesday. The Bobcats took second place by trimming Miami, 23 to 18, Saturday.

Another fast race has developed in the Northwest conference where Defiance holds first place by a margin of one game with four wins and one defeat.

The unwieldy Ohio conference with its 19 teams saw plenty of action in a week but there was little change in the statistics. Mount Union now has 10 victories and no defeats by virtue of two more wins one from Hiram and another from Ashland.

AFTER EIGHTH WIN
Northwestern Seeks Another Victory in Big Ten Race.

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—Riding high at the head of the Big Ten basketball championship race, Northwestern's undefeated five will seek its eighth straight conference victory and its twelfth of the season, tonight, against Illinois.

If the Wildcats can whip the Illini, a victory over Iowa's last place team Saturday night, would just about assure them of their second major title of the school year.

While Northwestern is "enter-taining" Illinois, Chicago will go to Ohio State, Purdue will battle the second place Gophers of Minnesota at Minneapolis, and Wisconsin will attempt to repair its battered fortunes at Iowa.

The whole league will be in action Saturday night. Along with the Northwestern-Iowa encounter at Iowa City, Chicago will play at Illinois. Michigan will return to competition against Indiana at Ann Arbor. Minnesota will meet Ohio State at Columbus, and Wisconsin will tackle Purdue on the Boiler-makers' court.

Company B Wins Cage Encounter 54 to 34

MUSIC PROGRAM SET FOR NEXT SATURDAY

Appreciation Concert for School Children To Be Given at Ohio Theater.

The second of the series of music appreciation concerts arranged for children of the public and parochial schools will be held Saturday, Feb. 21, at the Ohio theater. The program, to which adults are also invited, will begin at 1 p. m.

A feature of the concert will be the contest of questions and music memory tests for children of the fifth to the eighth grades and the melody tests arranged for children of the second to the fourth grades.

Awards will be presented to children getting all the correct answers. Five questions will be asked and five melodies played for the older children, while the younger children will be tested in five melodies only.

A trio composed of Mrs. William Under of Bucyrus, Mrs. Karl W. Schell and Mrs. L. N. Hale will be presented on the program, which is in charge of Mrs. Catherine I. Fairchild, secretary of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs, whose members are sponsoring the series. Single admission for children is 10 cents and for adults 20 cents.

At present, the local boards of education have authority over a total tax of 4.5 mills, including the statewide 2.65 mill levy which is levied entirely within the county for education.

Since the state itself is the original unit of education administration, it should bear a greater share of the burden of operating schools, Morris declared. The equivalent of 2.65 mills on all the taxable property in the state, which would raise about $40,000,000, should be furnished by the state in addition to the funds it now furnishes for educational work, he said.

This money should not be raised by direct tax on personal and real property, but by indirect taxation or by direct taxation on the intangible taxable property not listed for taxation at present, Morris said.

Switching his topic to the importance of the county superintendent's office, Morris said the county office is an important step in the state educational setup.

There are several bills before the legislature to abolish offices of county superintendents in Ohio counties, Morris said. In every instance, he continued, the bills submitted were traced to a personal grudge of some nature against the superintendent himself, not against the office. In nearly every instance where there is agitation against the county superintendent's office, it is because of personal feelings, not because the office is considered unnecessary, he said.

country youth needs help to stay in school.

Marion citizens have been offered an opportunity to further the education of a Marion county youth whose family is in dire financial straits.

The youth, a lad of 14, is a pupil in one of the junior high schools but he is unable to attend due to a lack of proper clothing, money with which to purchase his noon meals, and a bicycle to transport him between his home in the country and the school.

Until recently the youth had a bicycle but it was stolen and since then he has been unable to make the trip to school each day.

Contributions for the lad will be accepted by V. H. Allen, probation officer of juvenile court. They may be in the form of clothing or money.

Allen also is working a bicycle for the boy's use.

Rural Education Head Addresses Teachers Here

George M. Morris Says State Should Bear None of Expense of Public Instruction; Tax Should Be Indirect; Speaks at County Session.

The state, as the original unit in education, should contribute more financial support to the carrying out of the educational program of today, George M. Morris of Columbus, rural school supervisor in the state department of education, said in an address to 140 Marion county teachers at the Central Junior High school Saturday.

Morris also pointed to the importance of the county superintendent's office in the operation of the state program of education, referring to the superintendent as a link between the individual schools and boards of education and the state department of education.

Regular Meeting
The address by Morris was the feature of one of the periodical meetings of the Marion County Teachers' association.

At present, the local boards of education have authority over a total tax of 4.5 mills, including the statewide 2.65 mill levy which is levied entirely within the county for education.

The Stars Say—
For Tuesday, Feb. 17.

The sidereal operations for this day point to very important events for those in employment of others, or those seeking favors or preferment from those in authority. It would be well to approach these, but to undertake other important changes with discretion and sagacity. There is some hazard in change or travel, but opportunities judiciously embraced and engendered should prosper.

Those whose birthday it is are on the eve of a year in which promotion and preferment await them from employers or those in places of authority. While judiciously managed affairs would prosper, yet removal, travel and new projects are on the whole precarious. A child born on this day should be capable and efficient in the employment of others, but otherwise may be restless, erratic and self-indulgent.

He might have won her ~if it hadn't been for 'B.O.'

(Body Odor)

"THEY both lived in our neighborhood. She was a pretty girl—and a mighty nice one, too. He was a fine steady-going young fellow—very much in love with her. But she didn't seem to fancy him.

"She went out with him several times, but after a little she turned him down. Of course she couldn't tell him the reason. 'B.O.'—body odor—is a delicate subject. But how different things might have turned out if he had only known what his trouble was and how easily Lifebuoy could have ended it."

The secret cause
Experiences like this happen every day—all around us. Disappointments in love—lost opportunities in business. But other explanations are given. We seldom realize how often "B.O." is to blame.

For people, as a rule, don't know when they offend. We become insensitive to an ever-present odor. We don't notice it in ourselves—but others do. Yet we must perspire. Even on cold days our bodies give off a quart of odor-causing waste.

Now millions have the satisfaction of knowing they're safe, the easiest way imaginable—by washing and bathing with Lifebuoy. Its penetrating, antiseptic lather purifies pores. Makes every inch of the body fresh and sweet-smelling.

Wonderful for complexions Lifebuoy keeps complexions looking their best—soft, smooth, and clear. Gives them a healthy, glowing loveliness. Note Lifebuoy's pleasant, hygienic scent—that vanishes as you rinse. It tells you better than words how Lifebuoy safeguards. Adopt Lifebuoy today.

THEATER NEWS AND REVIEWS

RONALD COLMAN COMING TUESDAY IN NEW PICTURE

"The Devil To Pay," Called Great Show; Billed Three Days.

BY HALLIE HOUCK
 RONALD COLMAN has a grand and glorious time in "The Devil
 To Pay," at the Palace Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. We saw the picture last week and recommend it with no strings attached as a thoroughly delightful play.

Frederick Lonsdale, one of England's jolliest wits, wrote the play for Colman. Colman, you know is an Englishman, straight from Richmond, Surrey and the play is an English story.

Colman, who to our mind is one of the best actors in Hollywood, although recognition is coming to him only in the last few years, has had the greater part of his stage and screen experience in this country. "The White Sister," in which he played opposite Lillian Gish, was his start in motion pictures.
 His "Bulldog Drummond" was one of the most entertaining shows in the new talking picture era.

His role in "Devil To Pay" is that of the young rascal son of an English nobleman, with the genial habit of getting out of scrapes and stealing things that endears him to the people who dislike him most.

"THE LAST PARADE"

GOOD ENTERTAINMENT
 When you've seen two shows in an afternoon, the third one has to be good or you'll find yourself counting the frazzled threads on the collar ahead of you. "The Last Parade," continuing at the Marion tonight and Tuesday keeps you on the up and up all the time.

And you don't know what "The Last Parade" is. We do, but you'll have to see this Jack Holt picture to find out, because it's all too exciting to let you in on. Tom Moore and Constance Cummings and Holt are the "three musketeers" idea. All for one and one for all, until Holt goes into the big racketeering.

"STEP A LITTLE CLOSER, FOLKS"!

You see him in the center of a craning crowd. His counter is an upturned box. With nervous gestures, and one eye on the cop at the corner, he dispenses his wares. Perhaps . . . on an impulse . . . you buy.

Next week, when you return to get your money back—as he so confidently promised—you find your side walk salesman has moved to fresher fields.

Unlike the street-sharper, an advertised product must have permanence. To become successful, it must gain the confidence of thousands of people. To remain successful, that confidence must never once be abused.

You will find many familiar names among the advertisements in this newspaper. Their messages carry no extravagant claims. They tell the truth about the product which they feature. They are as dependable as an old friend.

Advertisements are guides 'to safe purchases. Minutes given to reading them' are well spent

The coast guard is to be equipped with seaplanes capable of taking off in heavy weather for rescue work at sea. Somebody should supply a chart to show how a seaplane is to be utilized as a lifeboat in weather sufficiently heavy to make the use of the ordinary variety of lifeboat impossible.

To stimulate rail travel, the Southern Pacific proposes to try out later on this month a rate of a cent a mile in seven western states, and it may attain results. A cent a mile is cheaper than one can drive his own car, investment, maintenance and oil and gas being considered.

Charlie Chaplin turned down cold an offer of $500,000 for twenty-six radio talks of fifteen minutes' duration each, remarking that he was "not interested." It must be conceded that Charlie has the courage of his convictions thus to reject an offer of $100,000 an hour for six and a half hours of talking! Now what will our women readers think of that?

Figures given out by the Ohio State Bankers' association show that nine out of every ten bank robbers in Ohio are captured, eighty bank robbers having been captured in the state since last May and two other bank robbers having been killed in the commission of their crimes. Crime is always hazardous and never profitable in the long run, and this is particularly true of the crime of bank robbery.

Federal Judge Charles I. Dawson, sitting in Louisville, warned Kentucky's commonwealth that the United States is headed for anarchy unless action is taken to control crime, citing statistics to show that the country's annual crime bill is $13,000,000,000.
 It's going to take remarkable prosperity and an awful lot of it to overcome a financial handleup like that.

The latest word from New York is that the reorganization plans for the Bank of the United States, under which its depositors will recover their money in full, have progressed to a point where all that is lacking to take the reformed institution into the clearing-house is the approval of the state superintendent of banks. If the reorganization goes through, as indicated, it's liable to seem to the depositors just like getting their money from heaven.

The Spanish Situation.

Were one to judge by the cables from Madrid and give no consideration to the past, the conclusion would be easy that the end of the rule of Alfonso as king is near at hand and that the Spanish monarchy is doomed.
 However, one who in mind goes back over the past two decades will recall that there has been scarcely a twelvemonth during that period that has not been marked by anti-monarchical agitation. There have been strikes which were inaugurated looking to the overthrow of the monarchy, there have been riotous demonstrations, revolutionary manifestations and revolutionary outbreaks have been many. The Spanish situation has at a number of times been as fully fraught with danger to Alfonso as at present, and yet he has succeeded in carrying on.

The honest endeavor of the king to give the people of Spain constitutional government may have lost him enough monarchial support to turn the balance against him, but with the resignation of the Berenguer cabinet, the decrees for the parliamentary elections called by Alfonso were recalled by him, or at least, let us put it, suspended until such time as a new cabinet may be formed to supplant the Berenguer cabinet, which is holding on until that time.

The obvious fact is that the people of Spain, as a whole, are not seeking a republic; that they know nothing of any other form of government than that of a monarchy and are satisfied with it. The same elements which are behind the present movement looking to a republic are those which have been responsible for the greater part of Spain's political troubles for the last twenty years. They are those who are opposed to any and all government in any way a departure from communism, the communistically inclined, the radical element of labor engaged in shops and factories, a large proportion of the college youth, those of the professions and sciences suffering from the same disease as that which affects some of our college professors over here and certain politicians who see in a republic a better opportunity for personal advancement than exists under the present form of government.

The army as a body and a great majority of the people of Spain outside the hotbeds of communism have given Alfonso their support.
 So long as they continue to do so, he will hold on as king. That support weakened and overcome, there will be another republic, or something which passes for a republic, over in Europe.

Railroads Charge Misrepresentation.

The Railway Age editorially charges that "one of the most deliberate and shameful misrepresentations ever disseminated among the American people regarding a public question" is the claim being uttered in the name of the National Automobile chamber of commerce.
 The claim to which reference is made is that uttered in a recent radio address by the Washington representative of the chamber, who is quoted as having said that the motor traffic which the railroads are trying to restrict "is the movement of more than 28,000,000 private cars, trucks and buses over the public highways, of which a close estimate shows that the farmers own and operate nearly 5,000,000 passenger cars and almost 800,000 trucks."

It matters little how the public may feel toward the efforts of the railroads to bring about a change in the policies of the national and state government to enable them to compete with other means of transportation, the fact remains that they should be treated with common decency and fairness and not be misrepresented.

The pamphlet in which the railroad executives have set out the changes of policies sought by them have been so widely distributed and newspaper comment regarding their position has been so frequent that there can hardly be honest misunderstanding that their requests are two; that large motor coaches and trucks be taxed in proportion to the expense their use of the highways causes the public which builds and maintains the highways and that competing transportation services be put under regulation fairly comparable with that under which the railroads are forced to operate.

Up to date there has been no public expression on the part of the railroads that the taxation on private passenger cars and small trucks be increased or that there be regulation in these classes of motor vehicles. In fact, the railroad executives have pointed to the unfairness of the present policy to the owners of the two classes of vehicles. This unfairness to both the owners of these classes of vehicles and to the railroads is set out by the Railway Age, when it says:

"The highways are built and maintained at the expense of the public. This is true regardless of whether the money is raised by general taxation, motor vehicle taxation or gasoline taxation, because, practically speaking, the 24,000,000 owners of private automobiles are the tax-paying public. The railways claim that the operators of large motor coaches and trucks are paying much less in proportion for the use of the highways than are the private motorists. They claim that this is unjust to the private motorist because it results in the private motorist paying a large part of total highway costs that should be borne by the operators of large motor coaches and trucks. They claim it is unfair to the railroads because it results in the operators of large motor coaches and trucks being subsidized at the expense of the public in competing with the railroads for traffic."

"Obviously, the private motorist will be benefited, not injured, by any increase in the proportion of total highway costs that operators of large motor buses and trucks are required to pay."

There are said to be two sides to every question, and there may be to this at issue, but those who are opposing the efforts of the railroads to have competing transportation given the same treatment as meted out to them, the railroads, can little advance their opposition by papable misstatements.

Five feet of snow in the vicinity of the town of Mount Washington in Massachusetts has caused the farmers to feed apples, of which there was an over-supply last fall, to the deer which come to their doors in search of food.
 Until comparatively recent months, the possibility of the apple as an agency of mercy was never appreciated to the full.

The most remarkable thing in connection with the new naval fighting plane capable of attaining a speed of 300 miles an hour and an altitude of six miles is the fact that it was constructed without any brass band effects in the way of preliminary notices and came to the country as a complete surprise. How different!

Arrested for beating his wife, a citizen of Southend, England, explained that he was simply trying to wean her from the use of the "Americanisms" she had learned by attending the talks, claiming that she calls him "Big Boy" and responds, when told to do something,
 "O.K. chief." While wife-beating can not be upheld, it's easy to see that in the case of this Britisher there were mitigating circumstances.

City of Oldest Known Civilization.

The joint archaeological expedition of Oxford university and the Field museum reports the discovery in Mesopotamia, a few miles east of Babylon, of a city so ancient that its ruins show the watermarks left by a mighty flood of ages past, possibly that described in Genesis.
 There was much comment, some time ago, when the first well-preserved palace of the Sasanian dynasty of Persian kings was found, but that discovery was as nothing compared with this later discovery, which was brought about as the result of excavating of the palace.

Professor Stephen Langdon, the American-born director of the expedition, states that by sinking vertical shafts in the great hill upon which the ancient palace stands, they encountered, in layers representing the various stages of civilization, the ruins of the buildings which preceded the palace until they encountered the watermarked ruins of buildings dating back to the Sumerians the first known civilized race.

While this latest discovery in Mesopotamia by no means establishes a flood of the magnitude of that of Biblical renown, it does show that far back at what we may take as having been the dawn of civilization there was a flood of such magnitude and of such duration as to leave its marks upon the walls of the structures of this ancient city discovered by the Oxford university-Field museum expedition, a flood so abnormal that it may have left the inhabitants of that part of the world to believe that it was worldwide and have been the foundation for the tradition which finally took the form of the Biblical story of the flood.

"Now, Where Do You Think You're Going?"

Editorial Opinion.

MR. SNOWDEN'S SPEECH.

Protests against the extravagance of the McDonald government are beginning to have their effect. Business interests, without regard to party, object to the bottomless hole of debt into which it is plunging the country. What with the reckless extension of the debt and the social welfare projects upon which Socialism is set, the treasury is approaching the ragged edge of bankruptcy. It is natural that the chancellor of the exchequer should be the first to feel the pressure of criticism. To do him justice, he is out of sympathy with most of his colleagues upon financial policy. His speech in the house of commons on the Conservative motion of censure, which, with the aid of the Liberals, was defeated, reminds one of nothing so much as a fighter with his back against the wall.

His weapons on this occasion were largely those of recrimination. He attacked the debt settlement with the United States, negotiated by Mr. Baldwin, and charged that Tory extravagance was the cause of increased taxation. At the same time he admitted, in effect, the truth of the charge of the extravagance of the present government, declared that further taxation would be disastrous, and called for drastic economies in administration. One result was a Liberal amendment, supported by the Conservatives, calling for the appointment of a committee to work out a plan of retrenchment. Another result was an attack upon the government by the Left Wing Socialists, who saw some of their favorite schemes in danger.
 They mustered twenty-one votes against the government—an ominous symptom of unrest among its normal supporters.

Mr. Snowden, as was to be expected, said nothing to conciliate any one, nor did he appear to be disturbed by the uncomfortable position in which he had put his party. As an example of invective his speech was a brilliant one. Like Lord Salisbury, he proved himself "a master of flouts and jests." But hard words seldom break any political bones. To bring up the war debt question at this time was futile, especially since the payments Great Britain is making upon it are as nothing in comparison with the cost to the country of employment, rising steadily since Mr. Mac-Donald took office. The Baldwin settlement was generally approved at the time, though Mr. Lloyd George, with characteristic lack of consistency, has recently been attacking it.

Though there is no immediate sign of the defeat of the government, it is plainly growing weaker, and an influential portion of the Liberal party is already averse to a continued alliance with the Socialists. The chancellor is at least one member of it who will go down fighting.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

THE RETURN OF THE REAL "MOVIE."

We hope it is a portent—the return of Charlie Chaplin with semi-silent, non-talking "movies." We hope it means something more than the sporadic appearance of pantomime on Broadway. We are ready to accept the managers' statement that the public demanded the "talkies," even when their mechanism was obviously raw and undeveloped; but we have always had a lingering devotion to the good old Westerns and to films like "Gass" and to Charlie's perennial tragic-comedies. They had an art of their own; and we suspect that they still have a public of their own.

The "movie" audience is so vast and so volatile that one can not judge too much by the crowds standing on Broadway today waiting to see "City Lights." There have been equal crowds at the first runs of "talkies," even of some "talkies" which seemed to deserve only Will Rogers' term of "squawbles." We shall have to wait until the managers count up the box-office returns for the first week only, but for the subsequent weeks on Broadway and in the little theaters across the land, and then it will still remain to be shown whether it is Charlie Chaplin that the public still loves, or the semi-silent pictures.

The adaptations of sound, which Mr. Chaplin uses have little to do with the issue; the take-off of the "talkies" in the opening oration is really an irrelevant though a highly successful gag; and the episode when Charlie swallows a whistle and proceeds to hiccup throughout might have been handled by an old-fashioned motion-picture orchestra. In all its essence "City Lights" is an old-fashioned silent "movie" by an old-fashioned Chaplin. As such we had it with enthusiasm, and we invite the Hollywood for more.—New York Herald Tribune.

Immunization Valuable.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

Immunization against typhoid fever has been demonstrated to be of great value. Its results have shown the advantages that properly directed public health activities have accomplished.

Typhoid fever used to be very common. During the Spanish American war it caused more suffering than did Spanish bullets. This disease is rarely if ever found in the army today.
 All soldiers in the army receive injections of typhoid fever vaccine.

In addition to this means of affecting protection, sanitary control has done wonders.
 Peter Cooper well always be remembered as a leader in the project for laying the American cable, primarily the project of Cyrus W.
 Field. In 1854 he became the president of the New York, Newfoundland & London Telegraph company, and two years later all its privileges were transferred to the Atlantic Telegraph company with a capital of one and three-quarter millions, for the purpose of laying the Atlantic cable. Throughout all the discouragements in this undertaking Cooper was fixed in his determination to carry it out. It is no exaggeration to say that his early success was due to the tireless patience and perseverance of Peter Cooper.—Copyright, 1931,

When Stanton Died.

BY J. H. GALBRAITH.

Something told Edwin M. Stanton, Ohio's great secretary of war, when the civil war came to an end, that his life work was done.
 He offered his resignation, but Mr. Lincoln desired him to remain. The great task had inspired him to high effort, and now it was done, he felt a collapse of his powers. But with the new problems coming almost immediately with the death of the president, and changing at once into conflict with Mr. Johnson, he took new hold on his office, yet, when the impeachment proceedings failed, he retired from public office and never again showed the power of mind and body that had marked him up to that time.

He did not take a high place in his old profession of law when he resumed it, as might have been expected under other conditions, and made but one notable public address afterward. That was in Philadelphia during the Grant campaign in 1868. It was noted with dismay by his friends on that occasion that his mind, so alert, forceful, and full of facts and figures, and he had constantly to be reminded from the audience.

General Grant meant to give him one of the best offices in his keeping, and so, in September of the first year of his administration, he appointed him to the supreme bench, but Stanton was in very feeble health at the time, and it was evident that he would never figure prominently in that tribunal. As a matter of fact, he lived but four days after that appointment was made, and never assumed his duties at all.

And yet he was only fifty-five years old, an age when many men feel they have only reached the prime of their lives.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. MINTYRE.

New York, Feb. 16 — Diary of a modern Peppy: Up and James Montgomery Flagg dropped in and sketched me in charcoal. He most perfect likeness I ever beheld. Yet he seemed unnecessary for Irving Cobb, happening by to peek over his shoulder and exclaim:
 "What a morbid pastime!"
 So to breakfast with Mr. N. Swanson, editor of College Humor, who could talk nothing but his approaching marriage to Miss Mary Taylor, a fair maid of Kansas City. Never likely he will purchase hectograms of morning in-law jokes for his brochure from now on.
 Home and putting about found a tremor-lar bill in an old bill-fold and off with my wife to the news reels. Then along Broadway deciding to walk five blocks north, turn right and dine in the first restaurant. It was Russian, and pretty terrible.

Leon Gordon, the portrait painter, has transferred the indescribable charm and pathos of Miss Helen Keller to canvas, the stinging place at her home at Forest Hills Long Island. Mr. Gordon began the work with spirit of tender sympathy for one so afflicted, but as it progressed and he came to know the subject he said: "She is the most supremely happy woman I have ever known."

Fate's bludgeonings failed utterly to quash Miss Keller's unconquerable spirit. These days have seen her are invariably impressed by the quality of her smile. No one close to her ever heard her whimper. What to most people would be a living horror is to her a happy adventure in happiness.

Vincent Astor, nearing his fortieth birthday, is not the rich flaneur of popular imagination.
 Rather, he has settled to an easy-going life of comparative unexcitement. He attends to social affairs, and is only an occasional patron of the theater. Last summer I chanced upon him dining alone in the crepuscular charm of Foyot's in Paris. The other week I ran across him enjoying a solitary hike along upper Riverside drive. Yet despite these sedate attitudes, young Vincent Astor is in the mood to be the life of dinner parties.

 offer to date to appear in a screen play. He Great Winter Playground.

BY TEMPLE MANNING.

For decades, St. Moritz in Switzerland, has been the Mecca for lovers of winter sports.
 Thrills abound in this cosmopolitan Alpine res-sort which lies 6,000 feet above sea level. For jumping, bob-sledding at sixty miles an hour horseshoeing on skis and skating are among the pleasures of this gay and colorful alpine center.

The ice-stadium at St. Moritz is surrounded on all sides by incomparable mountains. Here are to be seen the best fancy and speed skaters in the world.

Perhaps next in fame to the great rink is "Sunny Corner" on the bob run. This is a right-hand bank of ice about thirty feet high and situated half way down the great curve.
 The sleighs hit it at a speed of about 40 miles an hour and curve past about half-way up and almost at right angles to the ground.
 The riders have scarcely caught their breath after this when the hurtling sleigh runs into "Horsehoe" corner, which is a left-hand bank about twenty-five feet high. There a great gathering of visitors watch the whirling sleighs skid past. The bob-sleighs accommodate five men or women.

There is also a slide called the "Crestal" which is ridden by a single person. The St.
 Moritz Bob-Sledding club warns that the "crestal" must be treated with respect or the rider may find himself in the hospital.

Winter in the upper Engadine where St.
 Moritz is located offers a series of snow-covered mountains which is perfect for the skis sport. Each hill, each valley is an adventure for the experienced skier. The experienced hands at this difficult, invigorating pursuit sometimes achieve a speed of twenty or even thirty miles an hour.

An astonishing sight not to be seen outside of Scandinavia and Switzerland is the performing acrobatics on skis. This requires strength and courage as well as balanced fact which will be verified by anyone who has attempted to navigate while just standing right on skis.

Turning New Pages

WITH LINA S. DUTTON

UNLESS you are terribly interested in romance which savors of nameless knights brave and bold and fair princesses in distress you will not find Jeffery Farnol's novel, "Over the Hills" so enticing. The story is written in the first person and for the most part in dialect. The story itself is most charming.

Adam Thurlay, called by that name because he was found on a Thursday in the arms of his dead mother, alongside the road, begins his adventurous career by freeing a prisoner who had been bound and placed in an old barn by the king's soldiers. He amazed himself, to say nothing of Master Hoses Bragg to whom he has been bound for service, when he demands his inheritance of 20 guineas bequeathed him by kind friends and locks the villain up in a cupboard.

His encounters are many and interesting in the days and years which follow and his adventures carry him out to sea in the hands of unfriendly seamen. The lovely Barbara to whom he is married refuses to believe he is anything but a noble and refuses to tell her the story of his birth. There is a beautiful ending to the story, tragic though it may seem.

Elizabeth Hughes Holloway's new novel, listed in spring fiction by Dutton's, "Vivian's Captivity," is a house of mystery, a tropical storm, a death by poison. The novel follows a series of strange developments. Why were the two daughters outside the door of their father's room about the time he died? What of his half-bred daughter whom he had brought to his house as a servant? And then there was the shaggy-haired lover of the youngest. All might

Noted Circus Performer Fatally Injured in Fall

Lillian Leitzel, Queen of Aerial Stars, Dies in Copenhagen After Trying Daring Body Whirl Once Too Often.

By The Associated Press. COPENHAGEN, Feb. 13.—Lillian Leitzel, queen of the big top and the sawdust ring, lay still today in death—the price she paid for having attempted her breath-taking body whirl high in the air once too often.

The end came yesterday in the midst of delirium brought on by head and spine injuries received Friday night when an iron ring broke and let her fall 45 feet to the ground.

Alfredo Cordona, her husband and himself a triple somersault trapeze artist, flew from Berlin to her bedside. He believed her condition improved when he left the hospital in the afternoon but shortly after she took a turn for the worse and soon passed away.

The Danish circus performer lived 20 of the 37 years of her life in America, where with the Ringling brothers and Barnum and Bailey circuses she made a reputation for thrilling feats at the end of a rope which may outlive the modern circus.

Her act was the "giant half-flange" to swing by her right hand from a rope 50 feet or more above the three rings, literally throwing her body over her own shoulder as a pivot. She usually did it just 100 times, but her record was 240 times.

The circus circus performer would stop at Lillian, 5 feet and 100 pounds, clad in pink tights, would come on to the center stage, and look off jeweled mules, while the ringmaster made an elaborate introduction. As she was drawn to the top of the tent, the rest of the big top was darkened and, with all spotlight focused on her, her act went on alone. The only circus performer to achieve that dignity.

2 FINED $100 HERE ON DRIVING CHARGES

Court Suspendes Driving Rights for Six-Month Period.

Two men were fined $100 each when they pleaded guilty in municipal court this morning to driving while intoxicated.

William Hallinger, 34, of 124 Jefferson street was assessed a $100 fine and his driving rights were suspended for six months when he entered a guilty plea. He was arrested on Holmes place last night. He narrowly avoided an accident at Center and State streets a few moments earlier, police say.

Lon Eaton, 43, of Toledo, was given a similar fine and his driving rights were revoked for six months when he pleaded guilty. He was operating his Oakland sedan near 211 East Center street when police arrested him early yesterday morning, according to their report.

Robert Eaton, 18, of Toledo, riding with Lon Eaton at the time of his arrest, pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of intoxication and was fined $10.

Hot Eaton men paid their fines and were released.

RESIDENT OF NEVADA IS HURT IN ACCIDENT

O. B. Wolfe, 31, Collides with Automobile Making Left Turn Near Here.

O. B. Wolfe, 31, of Nevada sustained cuts and bruises about the face and head last night at 10:30 o'clock when the Ford sedan which he was driving collided with a Dodge sedan driven by Russell Diehl of Upper Sandusky.

The accident occurred on the Upper Sandusky road four miles north of Marion. Diehl told Sheriff C. E. and Deputy Millard E. Diehl that he was attempting a left hand turn when Wolfe's machine, coming from behind, crashed into the left side of the car.

Diehl and three passengers who were riding with him were unhurt. Both machines, however, were badly smashed. The Dodge was towed to Upper Sandusky and the Ford was brought to Marion by the Hibernian Chevrolet Co.

Diehl was held temporarily by Sheriff E. but later was released.

2 FINED $100 HERE ON DRIVING CHARGES

Court Suspendes Driving Rights for Six-Month Period.

Two men were fined $100 each when they pleaded guilty in municipal court this morning to driving while intoxicated.

William Hallinger, 34, of 124 Jefferson street was assessed a $100 fine and his driving rights were suspended for six months when he entered a guilty plea. He was arrested on Holmes place last night. He narrowly avoided an accident at Center and State streets a few moments earlier, police say.

Lon Eaton, 43, of Toledo, was given a similar fine and his driving rights were revoked for six months when he pleaded guilty. He was operating his Oakland sedan near 211 East Center street when police arrested him early yesterday morning, according to their report.

Robert Eaton, 18, of Toledo, riding with Lon Eaton at the time of his arrest, pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of intoxication and was fined $10.

Hot Eaton men paid their fines and were released.

O. B. Wolfe, 31, Collides with Automobile Making Left Turn Near Here.

O. B. Wolfe, 31, of Nevada sustained cuts and bruises about the face and head last night at 10:30 o'clock when the Ford sedan which he was driving collided with a Dodge sedan driven by Russell Diehl of Upper Sandusky.

The accident occurred on the Upper Sandusky road four miles north of Marion. Diehl told Sheriff C. E. and Deputy Millard E. Diehl that he was attempting a left hand turn when Wolfe's machine, coming from behind, crashed into the left side of the car.

Diehl and three passengers who were riding with him were unhurt. Both machines, however, were badly smashed. The Dodge was towed to Upper Sandusky and the Ford was brought to Marion by the Hibernian Chevrolet Co.

Diehl was held temporarily by Sheriff E. but later was released.

LICENSES ISSUED

Two marriage licenses were issued today in probate court to the following couples: Clarence H. Reinhardt, laborer, of Berwick, and Debra Harper of 764 Merkle avenue; Walter Griffin, salesman, and Annie Colman, both of Marion.

Plan Japanese Tea Thursday

A SOCIAL AFFAIR which promises to be colorful is the Japanese tea to be given by the Art and Marion Lecture-Recital clubs Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Carl W. Sawyer of White Oaks farm will be hostess for the party, which is being given for members of both clubs and the club patronesses.

An unusual program has been arranged for 2:30 o'clock, the opening hour. Miss Angeline Kelley, soprano in the faculty of the department of music at Ohio Wesleyan university, will be presented in a costume recital of Japanese songs. Her appearance at the tea will mark her first in Marion. She is a graduate of Yale university and studied at the Conservatoire Americaine at Fontainebleau, France.

Fuyuki Kagayama Barnes of Columbus, commercial artist on the Columbus Citizen, will talk on his art experiences in the United States and will exhibit some of his work. His mother was chosen by the Japanese government to represent the nation at the World's Fair at St. Louis in 1904, and her son will display several of her best pieces of art work. Barnes is the name of his family of American adoption. He is a graduate of North High school in Columbus and was formerly a student in ceramic engineering at Ohio State university and the Columbus Art school.

Miss Mary Linscott and Mrs. Betty Mautz will present a Japanese dance. An exhibit of choice prints and Japanese art has been loaned the clubs by Karl Bolander, director of the Columbus School of Fine Arts, Miss Sarah Humphries of the fine arts department at Ohio Wesleyan university, Fuyuki Barnes and by members of the clubs.

Members of the clubs will be admitted to the tea by presenting their program year-books.

Lecture-Recital Group To Meet Thursday
Members of the piano section of the Lecture Study club will meet Thursday morning at the home of Mr. Harold K. Mouser of South Prospect street for their regular program.

Darkens Hair—So Naturally No One Can Tell
When I see gray I see old age. Youth is every woman's right, so don't let hair get gray. Just use this improved formula made from that wonderful old recipe of common sage tea and sulphur. Nothing better. Gray disappears overnight. And after two or three applications your hair will be the exact shade you want. So evenly, so naturally darkened nobody'll ever know. Just pay your druggist 75c for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage & Sulphur and follow the simple directions.—Adv.
